

About

The International Certification in Warehouse Operations is a professional credential designed to validate expertise in warehouse management and logistics. It equips individuals with the skills needed for efficient warehouse operations, inventory management, and supply chain optimization.

Objective

- Explain the challenges, objectives, and functions of warehousing
- Perform ABC inventory classification and cycle counting and calculate record accuracy and discrepancies
- Describe the different types of storage and material handling systems
- Improve supervisory skills and deal more effectively with warehouse staff issues
- Develop better skills for housekeeping and safety within the warehouse
- Measure warehouse productivity using the right Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) and conduct a scientific audit of the warehouse of CLIT (UK) Level 2 is to enhance new and existing expertise in the supply chain, passenger transport and road freight or transport planning environments as well as developing core management skills.

Content

- Warehouse operations
- Customer service
- Record accuracy
- Staff relations
- Safety management
- Warehouse auditing

Prerequisite

- Basic Education: A minimum of a high school diploma or equivalent is often required
- Work Experience: No specific work experience is usually required, although some understanding or exposure to the logistics, transport, or supply chain sectors is beneficial.
- Skills: Basic numeracy, literacy, and a keen interest in the logistics and transport sectors.

Exam & Certification

- Certification: CILT - Chartered Institute of Logistics & Transport